

Refund Policy - We are Queensland Lunch 4th June 2022

At any time, including the morning of the event, you can transfer a ticket to another person.

If you are unable to attend the event for any reason: A full refund for event tickets and event + bus tickets is available before 15 May 2022.

If you are unable to attend because a COVID related government regulation requires you to isolate at home: A full refund is available to guests up until and including the day of the event, or you can transfer your ticket to next year's event.

If a COVID related government regulation requires the event to be canceled: A full refund is available to guests, or you can transfer your ticket to next year's event.